- ii. establishing, investigating and defending claims.

The use of video surveillance takes place on the basis of article 6 (1)(f) of the GDPR., i.e. in the legitimate interest pursued by the Personal Data Controller.

Places covered by video surveillance are appropriately marked with pictograms informing about installed cameras.

V. Recipients of Personal Data

In connection with the conduct of activities requiring the processing of Personal Data, Personal Data may be disclosed to external entities.

The recipients of Personal Data entrusted to the Personal Data Controller by the Users are the following entities to whom Personal Data is transferred to the minimum extent necessary to achieve the purpose / purposes for which the data was obtained:

- authorized Personal Data Controller's personnel, subcontractors and entities providing services to the Personal Data Controller (including IT services and technical support), which must have access to data in order to properly perform their duties;
- entities processing Personal Data on behalf of the Personal Data Controller (e.g. accounting office, technical service providers, hosting service providers, law firms);
- competent authorities authorized in accordance with applicable law regulations

VI. Period of Personal Data processing

The Personal Data Controller processes the Personal Data obtained for the period necessary to achieve the purpose/purposes for which they were provided. The period of data processing is related to the purposes and grounds for their processing, therefore:

- data processed on the basis of statutory requirements (e.g. tax) will be processed for the time in which the law requires data storage;
- when the basis for processing is the performance of the contract, then the data is processed by the Personal Data Controller as long as it is necessary to perform the contract;
- data processed on the basis of the Personal Data Controller's legitimate interest will be processed until the data subject successfully submits an objection or the interest ceases. Data processed for the purpose of pursuing or defending against claims will be processed for a period equal to the period of limitation of these claims;
- data processed on the basis of consent will be processed until the consent expressed by the data subject is withdrawn;
- registered video surveillance recordings will be stored for a period of up to 15 days from the date of recording. In the event that the recordings will constitute evidence in proceedings conducted under the law or the Personal Data Controller becomes aware that they may constitute evidence in proceedings, the storage period of the recording will be extended until the final conclusion of such proceedings.

The period of data processing may be extended if the processing is necessary to establish or pursue claims or defend against claims, and after this period - only if and to the extent required by law. After the end of the processing period, the data is irreversibly deleted or anonymized.

VII. Users rights

The Personal Data Controller exercises the rights of the Users related to the processing of their Personal Data. In particular, each User has the right to:

- access to his Personal Data, including obtaining a copy thereof;
- rectification (correction) or completion of incomplete Personal Data;
- request deletion of Personal Data in cases provided for by law ("right to be forgotten");
- submit a request to limit the processing of Personal Data;
- object to the processing of Personal Data;
- if the basis for the processing of Personal Data is the legitimate interest of the Personal Data Controller, the User has the right to object to the processing of Personal Data at any time, without the need to justify his decision, especially when the legitimate interest consists in conducting activities related to marketing direct;
- withdrawal of consent to the processing of Personal Data. The consent expressed by the Users may be withdrawn at any time, which will not affect the lawfulness of data processing carried out before its withdrawal.

The above rights, as well as the intention to withdraw consent, may be implemented by sending a relevant request by e-mail to the e-mail address indicated in point III of the Policy or by post to the address of the Personal Data Controller's registered office given in point I and III of the Policy.

In cases where it is recognized that the processing of Personal Data of natural persons by the Personal Data Controller violates the provisions of the GDPR or is inconsistent with the Policy, Users have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory body.

VIII. Security of Personal Data

The Personal Data Controller ensures the security of Personal Data against unlawful disclosure to unauthorized persons, data acquisition by unauthorized persons, destruction, loss, damage or change, and personal data processing in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of the GDPR.

In order to secure the entrusted Personal Data, the Personal Data Controller takes technical and organizational measures that meet the requirements of the GDPR, in particular the measures listed in art. 24 and Art. 32 of the GDPR, ensuring confidentiality, integrity and availability of processing services for the Personal Data provided.,

IX. Automated decision making and profiling

Your data may be processed by the Personal Data Controller in an automated manner, including in the form of profiling. However, individual decisions related to this processing will not be automated.

X. Final Provisions

To the extent not covered by this Policy, EU regulations on the protection of personal data shall apply.
